Dance (c) Colin Hume January 2003

introduction (first time only)

Dance: Colin Hume
Format: 4 Couples longways

Music: Dave Brown
Music: 4 x Own tune (waltz)

C: All back-to-back partner. Circle left half-way.

D: Ends give right hand to partner to start 4 changes of a grand chain - middles only do 3 changes. All two-hand turn partner.

Progressed position is 2, 4, 1, 3. Repeat the dance three more times.

Each paragraph is eight bars long. A semicolon marks a two-bar phrase; a full stop marks a four- or eight-bar phrase.

(Dance and music were written in 2002, for Dave Brown's niece Felicity Bird. The tune is recorded 8 times through on Dave's CD "Outside of the Square", DB003CD.)
